

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The VIP Club Board continues to believe there is a light at the end of this pandemic tunnel, and we are proceeding to schedule VIP Club social events beginning in June. Barring any major setbacks, outdoor weather, greater distribution of vaccine, and modest safety precautions should allow us to gather safely, beginning with our traditional picnic in June.

Last year, we postponed our 40th anniversary bash to September 14, 2021, and that reschedule looks like a go. Watch for future newsletters and check the website (www.vipclubmn.org) for the latest.

One event that we are regretfully missing this year is the Volunteer Recognition lunch. After some deliberation, the feeling of the board was that April was just a little too soon to have an indoor event. This lunch has been traditionally scheduled to coincide with National Volunteer Month, and April 18-24 has been designated National Volunteer Week. Volunteerism is an under-appreciated component of the U.S. economy—about 25 percent of our population volunteers, with an estimated dollar value in the hundreds of billions of dollars. But the dollars and hours are only part of the story. Volunteers are more than free workers; they accomplish so many good things that wouldn't happen if it were left to the for-profit sector or Government sector. In my experience, these achievements really help other people and a great diversity of worthwhile organizations.

Minnesota is right up there nationally in volunteerism, and the Twin Cities are the top participating area of Minnesota. I know many of our members are a strong part of this record of achievement. VIP Club members have contributed tens of thousands of hours every year supporting churches, social agencies, civic organizations and friends and neighbors. Many of you have indicated that you don't want recognition, but the fact is that this world would be a much less nice place without your efforts. Our club get-together is a small way to collectively say Thank You and we all look forward to better times in 2022.

Meanwhile, everyone should stop for a moment in April and give volunteers a virtual pat on the back.

Last issue I mentioned the commissioning ceremony of LCS 21, the Minneapolis-St Paul, originally planned for May in Duluth. Well, things have changed—the ship class has been found to have a design flaw in the system that combines the power output of two gas turbine engines (think jetliner engine) and two diesel engines. Until they get a handle on this, the commissioning is on hold for an indeterminate time. If any of you are interested in going when it does happen, however, I recommend you go ahead now and request tickets at <https://navyleaguemn.org>. They will forward requests to the U.S. Navy, who will issue free official tickets when the commissioning actually occurs. This will be a great event and summer in Duluth will be a better time.

SOCIAL REPORTS & ARTICLES

Volunteerism is the sharing of one's time and talents for the benefit of others. In the spirit of April as national volunteer recognition month, your VIP Club Board thanks each of you for the time you have freely given to charitable and non-profitable organizations. In light of social distancing, we have not surveyed your 2020 volunteer activities nor planned a 2021 recognition luncheon. Most volunteers seek no limelight, then just nod or smile when an occasional thank you is offered by observers and recipients. In past surveys, about 10 percent of members have submitted their "donated hours." For example, the June 2009 newsletter printed: "146 survey responders reported 27,576 donated hours to our communities during calendar year 2008:

- 5,747 to Community and Related Services
- 3,247 to Meals, Food and Housing Services
- 3,638 to Health and Disaster Services
- 5,886 to Religious Support and Related Services
- 2,239 to Schools, Museums, and Educational Services
- 934 to Music and Theatrical Services
- 5,885 to Other Services, including the VIP Club and LEGACY project."

At the 2012 breakfast Bernie Jansen noted "the estimated value of the reported volunteer services contributed by VIP Club members for the year 2011 was over $550,000." Just imagine the hours and value if we had 100 percent survey responses. Read <http://vipclubmn.org/Social.html#volunteering> for our volunteer recognition luncheon history. Again, a sincere thank you to all volunteers!
LABenson.

LEGACY TIDBITS

How did it Happen?

Many of you read the January 10th Star Tribune article, <https://www.startribune.com/at-99-computer-pioneer-looks-back-at-early-minnesota-tech/600008677/>.

During the December club board meeting, we discussed how to publicize the ERA 75th anniversary in January 2021. Director Gish Devlaminck suggested that we contact Curt Brown, Minnesota history author for the Strib. After exchanging a few e-mails with Lowell Benson, Mr. Brown talked with Don Weidenbach and wrote the article. Brown agreed to share any feedback that he received from readers. We have posted the article, communications trail and feedback as our March 2021 article for the month (see http://vipclubmn.org/Articles/75-Years_Ago.pdf).

Interestingly, one of the people responding to the article was Connie Hill, daughter of John 'Jack' Hill. Hill was on the ATLAS installation team in the fall of 1950, and had been a regular at the 1st Friday luncheons (see Our Stories from March 2008: A Gagggle of Geeks by James P. Lenfestey). Connie Hill's input has been added to <http://vipclubmn.org/deceased.html#Hill> and <http://vipclubmn.org/PeopleInterview.html#Hill>.

We also received feedback from former ERA engineer Jerry Williams; his story will be our April 2021 article (see <http://vipclubmn.org/OurStories.html#2021>).

Old Software!

How many of you VIP Club newsletter readers had your first on-line experience with The Oregon Trail, a game originated at the University of MN in the 1960s? Now there is an Oregon Trail emulator at <https://museum.syssrc.com/artifact/software/1020/> that functions on home PCs! Most old DOS software won't run on modern computers; however, for more nostalgia, the System Source Computer Museum also has a JavaScript library to emulate early IBM PC, XT or AT, thus site visitors can download a DOS package for several applications such as EasyWriter, WordStar, VisiCalc, MultiPlan and other classic programs. Many other museums have bits of our legacy; view their introductions at <http://vipclubmn.org/Exhibits.html#Others>. Back from the future to the software of the 70s is an occasional enjoyable browsing evening. TPT, our PBS affiliate, occasionally airs "Trailheads: The Oregon Trail's Origins." Enjoy!

YOUR STORY

Eagan Facility Irony

Dan Carlson, former Lockheed Martin Security Officer-Supervisor and Resource Protection Manager, shared the following when renewing his VIP Club membership:

Thanks so much for offering the free membership year! I still miss my Sperry/Burroughs/Unisys/Paramax/Loral/Lockheed Martin days (6/25/79 – 6/13/2013), just 12 days short of 34 years! Work was fun—so were all of you—you were like a family to me. The Eagan facility had a major impact on my life, in more ways than just a place to work—let's just say it presented a few ironic opportunities!

In 1974 a divorced gentleman from California, Paul Cline, accepted a position as a systems analyst at the Sperry Univac facility in Eagan. His daughter, Yvonne, came to visit that year and she must have liked our great winter weather, because she returned to live with her father in Eagan in the fall of 1975. I met Yvonne at a church youth group that November in Apple Valley, of all places, where we have resided since 1992. She was 16 and I was 18.

Yvonne and I married in 1978. A few months prior I had applied for a position as a Facilities Protection Guard at Sperry Univac. I had just graduated with a two-year degree in law enforcement, but, ironically, my timing was suspect as police officer jobs were scarce—and knowing I was getting married soon added to the pressure! My timing continued to be a bit off when Jim Bailey from the Security Department called me a couple days before I got married to ask me to come in and interview for the Facilities Protection Guard job I had applied for months before. Unfortunately, I had to turn down the opportunity as I already made plans to move to Bemidji for my wife's last year of college after we married. Jim Bailey told me to call him again if I was interested in reapplying in the future.

In May of 1979, we returned to the Twin Cities. I contacted Jim Bailey, interviewed with Jim and the Security Manager, Tom Kunz, at the Eagan facility, and was offered a job on the spot. I accepted and began my employment on June 25, 1979 (another irony as my first son was born on June 25, 1985!).

I had an amazing 34-year career based at the Eagan facility. As a Security Officer I got to work in all the local defense system locations and meet many employees in the process. Ironically, on February 1, 2013, I was at the facility on the last day of what I would call formal operations. I sent the last shift of security officers home around noon, and had my wife, Yvonne, stop by; we walked the Eagan facility from sub-basement to the second floor.

I think the boiler operator was the only other person in the entire 614,000 sq. ft. facility. I have to admit that last walk was tough—many memories and emotions flooded my mind. I had quite a lump in my throat. It was the oddest feeling walking out and locking the doors, knowing that for the first time since the facility opened in 1967, there would no longer be a guard force there to watch over it.

To think my career, my wife—my family—came about because of Sperry Univac—this Eagan facility! Yvonne and I will have been married 43 years this August 2021; we also have a small family of now seven adult children and five grandchildren. My oldest son, Jacob, is a tech sergeant in the U.S. Air Force where he has served for 13 years; I believe his military service is a result of his exposure to his many visits during Holly Daze, Bring your Kid to Work Days and the Explorers Club. In fact, when two of my boys were little, one was convinced Santa Claus lived at the Eagan facility, not the North Pole, and another son was convinced we built the SR-71 in Eagan! I also have a son-in-law in the U.S. Navy and another in the U.S. Coast Guard; yes, two of my daughters married military men. It was a privilege and an honor to work among so many brilliant and talented individuals over all those years and to share you with my family at these events or just by stories I might have shared at home at night. You taught me so much; mostly that you and I are part of a wonderful and unique work family with a proud and long heritage.

My last ironic twist: I wanted to start my career as a police officer, but my life plans changed when I became employed at Sperry Univac. After my layoff, I became employed as an asset protection supervisor, embedded with investigations performing video forensics, among many other tasks at Metro Transit Police Department. My once-future law enforcement career took a 34-year detour, but I miss working at the Eagan facility with all of you and I always will! Thank you for letting me share my story.

We found Dan Carlson's name on our website as well, having contributed to an IT Legacy Project Paper covering the Plant 8 closure (see pages 5 & 6):

When They Left Us:

Have you looked at our departed coworkers on-line list? (See <http://vipclubmn.org/PeopleDocImg/AlphabeticDeceasedEmployees.pdf>.)

When Marv Brown initiated the Roseville 2nd Wednesday luncheons in 1991, the monthly agenda had a few jokes and announcements of those who had recently passed. Even before the VIP Club started, the annual Unihogs luncheons recognized the departed by reading an informal list. When the Legacy Anthology started in 2007, we made obituary log files of employee and spouse names that had been reported in our newsletter (see section 2 links in <http://vipclubmn.org/deceased.html>).

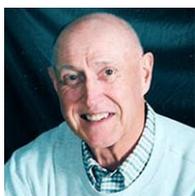

A year ago when Paul Dickson was updating the Roseville Good Old Days contact list, he made a spreadsheet of Marv Brown's "when deceased" notes. Lowell Benson then merged the newsletter lists with Paul's Roseville persons' listing to make an alphabetic listing for the website. Now the list is up to date as of the Jan/Feb issue, and there are more "to be verified" names in a pending file. Our intent is to update twice a year. If you know of a deceased coworker whom we've missed, please e-mail paul.dickson@comcast.net and/or la.gj.benson@comcast.net with the specifics.

The obits hereunder are redacted from funeral home postings or Pioneer Press, Star Tribune, or applicable local listings.

The VIP Club board extends its sympathies to the families and friends of those who have lost loved ones.

rather find strength in what remains behind.
